

Lomborg Quote:

... Second, temperatures will increase much less than the maximum estimates from IPCC — it is likely that the temperature will be at or below the B1 estimate (less than 2°C in 2100) and the temperature will certainly not increase even further into the twenty-second century... The Skeptical Environmentalist, Measuring the Real State of the World, page 286.